

Ninth Annual SRP Sustainability Conference of American Legal Educators

May 9-10, 2024

Registration and Table Sponsorship now available

Hosted by the Law and Sustainability Program at Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law

The SRP Sustainability Conference of American Legal Educators is the premier annual gathering of law professors presenting the latest research on environmental sustainability. Topics include climate change law, environmental law, energy law, water law, natural resources law, land use and zoning law, agricultural and food law, and disaster law, just to name a few. This year's conference kicks off with a pre-conference dinner on Thursday, May 9, and continues Friday, May 10, with a full day of presentations, eligible for up to 7 hours of CLE credit. If you want to know where we are and where we're headed from the leading sustainability law scholars, you will not want to miss this event.
