

Fifth Annual Sustainability Conference of American Legal Educators

May 9-10, 2019

Hosted by the Law and Sustainability Program at Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, the Sustainability Conference of American Legal Educators \(SCALE\) is the premier annual gathering of legal scholars presenting the latest research on environmental sustainability. Topics include climate change law, environmental law, energy law, water law, natural resources law, land use and zoning law, agricultural and food law, and disaster law, just to name a few. If you want to know where things stand and where they're headed from the nation's leading sustainability law scholars, you will not want to miss this event.

Program

Thursday, May 9

Conference Dinner 6:00 pm

Friday, May 10

Check-in and Breakfast 8:00 am
Morrison Laureate Address 8:30
Morning Presentations 9:30
Lunch and Keynote Address 12:30 pm
Afternoon Presentations 1:30
Ethics CLE Session 4:45

Keynote

Michael B. Gerrard

Columbia Law

Taking 1.5 Degrees Seriously: Tradeoffs and Triage

Register today

Thursday Dinner and Friday CLE credit*	$250
Friday CLE credit* only	$175
Thursday Dinner only	$75
Friday only (no CLE)	$25
ASU law student or ASU faculty (Fri. only)	free

*May qualify for up to 8 hours of CLE credit, including 1 hour of Ethics CLE.

special thanks to Richard Morrison, our conference sponsor, and to:

sustaining sponsors

Jack Clifford

FREEPORT-McMoRAN

supporting sponsors

Grady Gammage

Mark McGinnis

Sarah Porter

table sponsors

Gammage & Burnham

Perkins Coie

Rose Law Group

Salmon Lewis & Weldon