

Maxwell J. Mehlman is the Arthur E. Petersilge Professor of Law and Director of the Law-Medicine Center, Case School of Law, and Professor of Biomedical Ethics, Case School of Medicine. He received his J.D. from Yale Law School in 1975, and holds two bachelors degrees, one from Reed College and one from Oxford University, which he attended as a Rhodes Scholar.

Prior to joining the Case faculty in 1984, Professor Mehlman practiced law with Arnold & Porter in Washington, D.C., where he specialized in federal regulation of health care and medical technology. He is the co-author of Access to the Genome: The Challenge to Equality; co-editor, with Tom Murray, of the Encyclopedia of Ethical, Legal and Policy Issues in Biotechnology; co-author of Genetics: Ethics, Law and Policy, the first casebook on genetics and law, now in its third edition; author of Wondergenes: Genetic Enhancement and the Future of Society, published in 2003 by the Indiana University Press; author of The Price of Perfection: Individualism and Society in the Era of Biomedical Enhancement, published in 2009 by the Johns Hopkins University Press, and most recently, the author of Transhumanist Dreams and Dystopian Nightmares: The Promise and Peril of Genetic Engineering, published by the Johns Hopkins University Press in 2012.

Professor Mehlman is a member of the Consortium on Emerging Technologies, Military Operations, and National Security, and head of its Bioenhanced Warfighter Thrust Group. He was a co-investigator on a project funded by the Greenwall Foundation to examine the ethics of biomedically enhancing military personnel, and is the principal investigator on an NIH-funded project to examine ethical, legal, and policy issues raised by the use of genomic science by the military.
