

• 2016 ASU-Arkfeld Call for Papers •

The ASU-Arkfeld eDiscovery and Digital Evidence Conference invites the submission of papers that fit within our 2016 theme:

“Respect the Past. Understand the Present. Shape the Future!”

Subject Matter:

Papers may address the evolution of eDiscovery, including the history, progress, challenges, or future of digital evidence and information. All papers submitted will be fully refereed by a minimum of two specialized referees. Before final acceptance, all referee comments must be considered. Only accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings.

Awards:

- Accepted papers are distributed during the conference to all attendees;
- Selected winning authors are given an opportunity to briefly present their papers at the conference
- Selected papers are published in ALM and are generally published in Legaltech News (www.legaltechnews.com).

Authors whose papers are accepted will be entitled to complimentary conference registration.

Guidelines:

Papers must comply with the following:

- Length: 800 - 1000 words.
- Format: Papers must be submitted electronically in Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx) format.
- Conditions: Submissions must be original and may not have been published previously or be under consideration for publication while being evaluated for this conference.

Submission Requirements:

- Submission: E-mail to Lauren Burkhardt at Lauren.Burkhardt@asu.edu.
- The name of the author's employer must be clearly stated on the submission.
- Submissions must be received by midnight on December 4, 2015.

Deadlines:

- Paper Submission Deadline: December 4, 2015
- Those whose papers are chosen for publication will be notified: January 4, 2016
